MIS. RIBEY BOYD'S case is resting quietly with the Secretary of State. His friends say that he will be appointed yet.

The indications are that a Collector of Internal Revenue will be appointed for the Lexington district some time this week.

The appointment of Judge M. J. Dur-ham to the office of Comptroller of the Treasury, says the Nicholasville Journal-Courier, "arakes all Keutucky glad." The Ohio Legislature has a Jopted the enstitutional amendment abolishing Oc tober elections and has ordered that it be voted upon by the people next fall.

STATE TRANSCERE I, W. TATE and State Auditor Fayette Hewitt are at Washington to hold a conference with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in regard to Kentucky war claims and the ruling about State tax on whisky.

Reports from New York say there has been a decided change for the worse in Gen. Grant's condition. The General's family is very much alarned at the criti-cal and unexpected change that has taken place, and members are evidently preparing themselves for worse develop-ments.

The heads of all the executive departments have appointed commissioners which are now instituting inquiries as to how to improve the service. It is settled that unworthy Republicans will not be retained, and it is expected, therefore, that in a short time a number of heads will go into the basket.

The Covington Commonwealth says: It is satisfactor to robe that Commence.

The Covington Commonwealth says: It is satisfactory to note that Congression-elect McCreary, of the Eighth Kentucky district, is in perfect accordance with the new administration. He says: "The President is the man 'we have long sough! 'lie is plain, honest and industrious. The cabinet is excellent and Democratic rule is going to be so popular that Cleveland will be overwhelmingly re-elected in 1885,"

Statistics which "can be made to show anything," show pretty conclusively

It is astisfactory to note that Congressionan-elect McCravy, of the Eighth Rentucky district, is in perfect accordance with the new administration. He says: "The President lat the man "we have long sought]" he is plain, honorst and industrious. A CITIZEN of Catlettsburg who has been a close observer of events in the Ashland murder case, has telegraphed the following to the Enquirer: "There were three children killed, and three men did it. It took three years, three months and three days to hang the last man charged with the crime. Three graves were dug in which to bury Craft. Turee days were set to hang Neal, each on the 27th of the month. Three men were on the Chissens' Committee at Ashland to ferret out the perpetrators, and on the third day their work was consummated by James Hefflin arresting Ellis, Neal and Craft. Three companies of soldiers were required to guard the prisoners to this place. Three persons were killed outlifeth by the soldiers when they freed out the most at Ashland. It took three ateamboats to convey the prisoners to the Mayaville jail. Three lawyers defiended Neal, and three Governors wrested with the case. He leaves three children, and 38 were expended in the transportation of his remains from Grayson here." A CITIZEN of Catlettsburg who has been
